THE GREAT FOX KIDS TAKEOVER

Sure, FOX KIDS are taking over the magazine, the radio, the Web, and the tube, but what if FOX KIDS took over the world? Flip through the magazine and find eight things you'd NEVER see in a world ruled by FOX KIDS. When you've got them all, flip to page 35!

FOX KIDS BIZ™

Well,
my mom, the Queen of Behind the Scenes, usually writes this but just couldn't get it together enough for this issue, so I had to take over. FOX KIDS are taking over the whole magazine, too. We have a kid editor, a kid art director, kid photographers, reporters, and reviewers...pretty cool, I think!

Also, check out the center spread pull-out poster. It's got all your favorite FOX KIDS characters, and looks great on any wall. Best of all, turn to page 34 to see how you can take over your poster, and make it as personal as your underwear!

FOX KIDS Takeover doesn't end here, either. We're taking over the TV, the Countdown, and even the Cyberstation, so check it out! Hey, maybe I can get this job permanently. Do you think I could bring my dog, Scooter, to work?

–Curtis, age 9

Matthew Interviews SHAQ!

Did you ever think you'd get a chance to sit and talk with Shaquille O'Neal? Neither did Matthew Savari (age 11). But that's just what he did, because Shaq is the guy FOX KIDS voted for on the Web! As our official reporter for the FOX KIDS Takeover issue, he went with us to Shaqtacular '97, an event hosted by Shaq at Universal Studios to raise money for various children's charities. He not only had a big day but interviewed the big guy. No, the big, big, BIG guy....

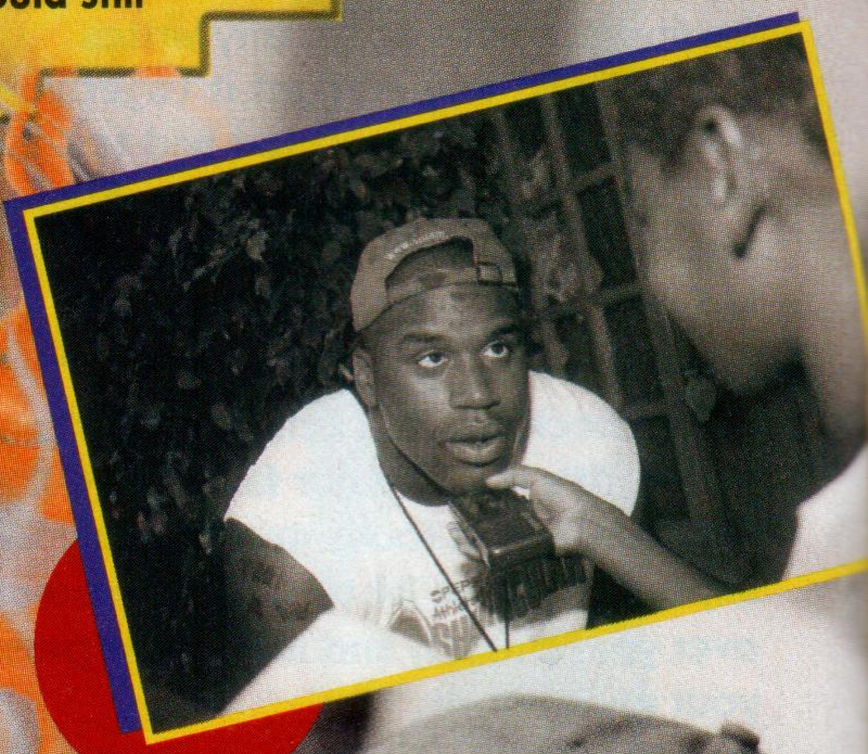

Photos by Te'Amir Sweeney, age 10

M: What would you be right now if you were 5'2" tall?

S: I would be somebody. I would still be the man.

M: I know that height is determined by genetic make-up, but do you have any advice to give a kid like me to gain some muscle mass?

S: You really shouldn't worry about muscle mass; you are too young for that. But as you get older your muscles develop and you get stronger. You need to eat right and stay out of trouble, and no matter what sport you play, just keep practicing.

M: As a kid, what did you want to be when you grew up?

S: I wanted to be a professional basketball player.

M: When did you shoot your first basketball?

S: When I was about ten.

M: What is your favorite snack when you're not training?

S: Ding dongs.

M: What was the last movie you saw?

S: Fargo. (He hasn't been to the movies in a while, has he?)

M: Have you ever seen an alien UFO?

S: Yes. (Is it because he's taller than everyone else?)

M: What is your favorite sandwich?

S: A triple-decker herculotious period sandwich. It's from my herculotious period.

M: Would you rather hang out with a guy named Chuck or a guy named Dave?

S: Neither one.

M: What message would you like to pass on to kids?

S: They should volunteer their time and stay out of trouble, stay off drugs, listen to their parents, and follow their dreams.

M: Thanks for your time, Mr. O'Neal.

S: Stay away from girls, too.

Rasputin

Sets Out To Complete Curse Against Romanovs

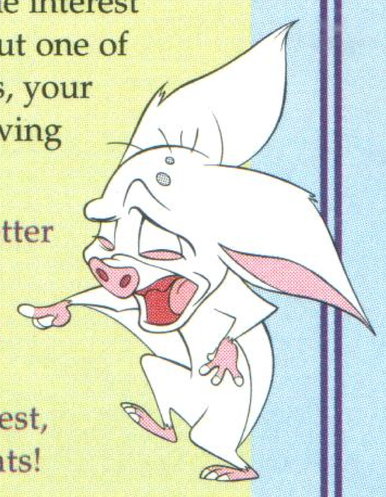

LIMBO... Trapped in a scary limbo because of his unfulfilled curse against the royal Romanov family, the evil magician Rasputin is hatching his latest plot: to find the lost princess Anastasia and complete his curse! Rasputin may find that he's up against a dangerous foe. For Anastasia will let nothing stand in her way as she searches for her home and family!

FUN FACTS ABOUT BATS!

SOMEWHERE IN EUROPE... In the interest of clearing up some wrong ideas about one of the world's most intriguing mammals, your editor is pleased to provide the following important information:

- Bats are not blind. They can see better than people.
- Bats are the world's only true flying mammal.
- Albino bats are the bravest, strongest, funniest, and best-looking of all bats!

A STAR IS BORN

In A Royal Movie Treat: A Review

Your critic recently had the opportunity to catch a special advance screening of ANASTASIA. A magical mix of adventure, action, music and comedy, the film is a spectacular, full-length animated film about the lost Russian princess.

But enough about the film. The real news is the performance by Bartok. The albino bat has it all: talent, looks and amazing comic timing. In fact, he steals the movie from an evil magician, a beautiful princess and a charming con man.

Two wings up for ANASTASIA, and way, way up for Bartok!

THE 'PRINCESS' AND THE PEASANT:

A ROYAL LOVE AFFAIR... OR BATTLE ROYALE?

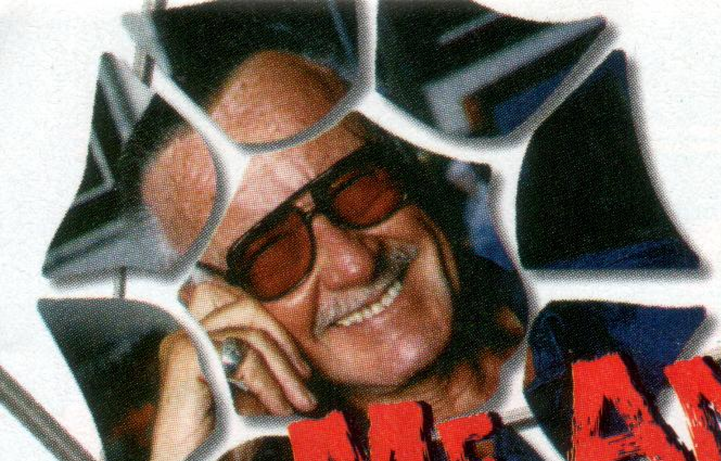

ON ROUTE TO PARIS... She's a beautiful orphan – and, maybe, a once and future princess. He's a charming con man – who may hold the key to her royal heritage. And rumors are running wild about their stormy friendship. Some say romance is blossoming aboard their Paris-bound train; others claim that Anya and Dimitri are constantly arguing, even while dodging the curse of the evil magician Rasputin. Is it love... or war between Europe's most talked about pairing?

ME AND MY MAN SPIDER-MAN™

MARVEL COMICS

BY STAN LEE

THE INFAMOUS BLACK COSTUME WAS MORE TROUBLE THAN IT WAS WORTH: IT LATER BECAME SPIDEY'S ENEMY, VENOM!

I'VE KNOWN SPIDER-MAN ALL HIS LIFE. HOW COME? BECAUSE I CREATED HIM.

THE YEAR WAS 1962. OUR COMICS "THE FANTASTIC FOUR" AND "THE INCREDIBLE HULK" WERE SO POPULAR THAT WE DECIDED TO PUBLISH ANOTHER COMIC BOOK TO KEEP THEM COMPANY. BUT WHO WOULD OUR NEW HERO BE?

EVEN IN THE ORIGINAL COSTUME, SPIDEY'S STYLE HAS REALLY CHANGED OVER THE YEARS.

ONE DAY, I NOTICED A FLY CRAWLING ON THE WALL. THAT'S WHEN THE IDEA HIT ME! WHAT ABOUT A HERO WHO COULD CRAWL ON WALLS LIKE AN INSECT? IT SOUNDED GREAT, BUT WHAT WOULD I CALL HIM? I THOUGHT OF "INSECT MAN," BUT THAT SOUNDED TOO UNGLAMOROUS. "FLY MAN?" NAH, TOO SIMPLE. "MOSQUITO MAN?" TOO SILLY. AND THEN IT CAME TO ME—"SPIDER-MAN!" I KNEW THAT WOULD BE COOL BECAUSE SPIDERS HAVE WEBBING, WHICH HE COULD USE TO SWING ON AND TO TIE UP VILLAINS!

I WANTED SPIDER-MAN TO BE VERY DIFFERENT FROM OTHER HEROES. THAT'S WHY I MADE HIM YOUNGER THAN THE OTHERS; HE STARTED AS A TEENAGE HIGH-SCHOOL STUDENT. THEN, I THOUGHT IT WOULD BE NEAT IF HE WASN'T RICH LIKE ALL THE OTHER HEROES, BUT INSTEAD LIVED WITH HIS WIDOWED AUNT WHO ALWAYS WORRIED ABOUT PAYING THE RENT AND HAVING ENOUGH MONEY FOR GROCERIES.

IN FACT, "WORRY" WAS THE KEY WORD WITH SPIDEY. HE WORRIED ABOUT DANDRUFF, ABOUT ALLERGIES, ABOUT HIS SCHOOLWORK, ABOUT GETTING DATES WITH GIRLS—ABOUT ALL THE THINGS THAT EVERY YOUNG PERSON WORRIES ABOUT—WHICH MAY BE THE REASON HE BECAME ONE OF THE WORLD'S MOST POPULAR SUPER HEROES—BECAUSE HE WAS SO MUCH LIKE THE VERY PEOPLE WHO READ HIS STORIES.

TODAY, WHEREVER YOU GO, YOU SEE SPIDER-MAN TOYS, GAMES, CLOTHES, CDS, AND VIDEOS. HE HAS ONE OF THE HIGHEST-RATED ANIMATED SERIES ON TELEVISION; HIS COMICS ARE SOLD ALL OVER THE WORLD; HE'S AS RECOGNIZABLE AS SANTA CLAUS; BUT MOST IMPORTANT, HE'S MY BEST FRIEND—AND Y'KNOW SOMETHING? HE'S PROBABLY YOURS, TOO!

WHAT'S SPIDER-MAN WEARING THIS SEASON? FIND OUT EVERY WEEKDAY AFTERNOON ON FOX KIDS!

NOT THE FIRST TIME SPIDER-MAN HAS TRIED A NEW COSTUME, BUT MAYBE THE COOLEST!

SPIDER-MAN 2099, 137 YEARS AFTER HE WAS BORN, SPIDEY IS STILL SWINGING.

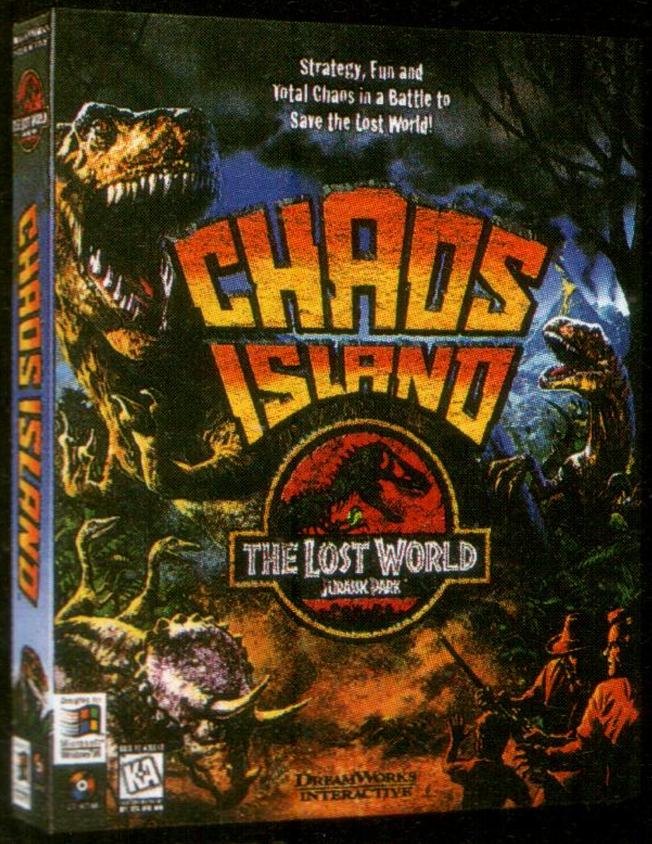

CHAOS ISLAND

THE LOST WORLD
JURASSIC PARK

Object of the game: Save the endangered species.
(That would be you.)

Welcome to Chaos Island. You're in charge but be warned; it's not going to be easy. You'll have to build a base camp, battle evil hunters and struggle to protect the very dinosaurs that are trying to eat you. Good luck. Chaos Island is a real-time CD-ROM strategy game with twelve menacing levels. Or less, depending on your survival skills. So pick it up wherever CD-ROMs are sold. Then you'll know what it feels like to be an endangered species.

FOX KIDS countdown

the GREAT music TAKEOVER!

FOX KIDS take over the music world! Why not? After all, you already decide what's hip, what's hot, and what's not. And if there's nothing out there knocking your stinking socks off, you can always come up with something better.

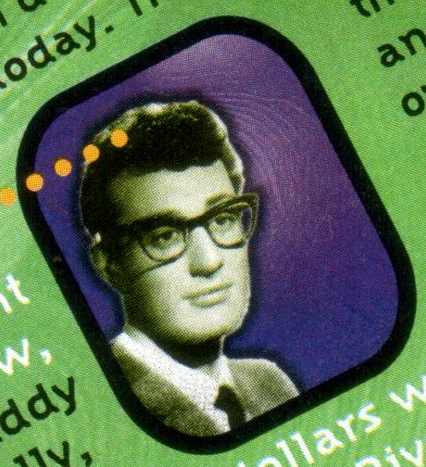

Kids have been doing just that for a long time, and they're still doing it today. This past year a huge explosion of young talent like Robyn, Jonny Lang, the Backstreet Boys, Hanson, and LeAnn Rimes has taken over the airwaves.

Q: How do you keep a dummy in suspense?
A: I'll tell you later.

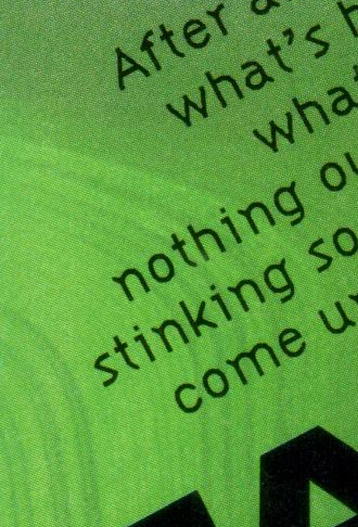

You're in the best position possible to become the next big music sensation, so go for it! For instance, did you know:

At a talent show, Buddy Holly, age five, won five dollars when he sang "Down the River of Memories."

Dolly Parton appeared at the Grand Ole Opry when she was twelve.

Mozart wrote his first minuet (piece of dance music) at the age of five and was nine when he wrote his first full-scale opera.

When he was seven years old (the artist formerly known as) Prince Nelson taught himself to play piano.

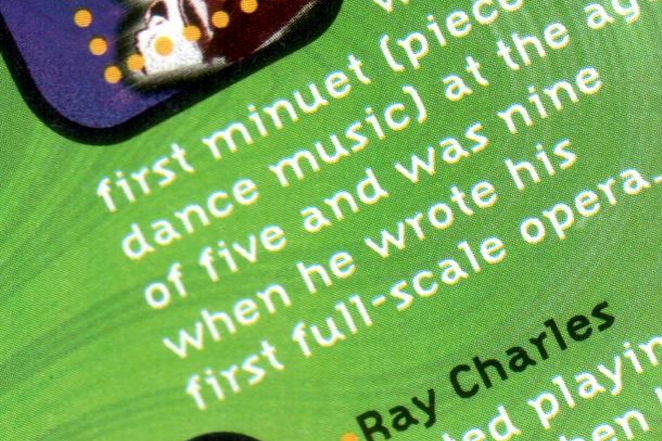

George Harrison was fourteen when he joined Paul McCartney and John Lennon in their band.

Ray Charles started playing piano when he was three years old.

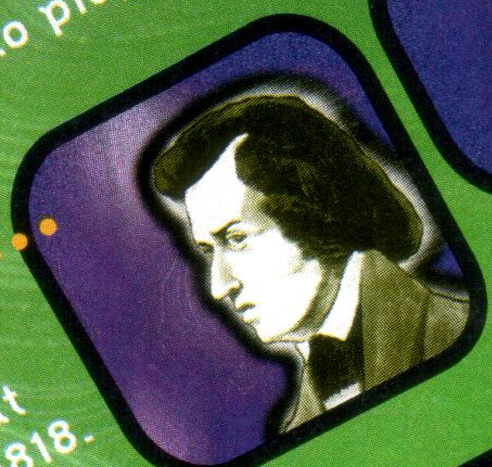

L. L. Cool J was six when he rapped his first single, "I Need a Beat."

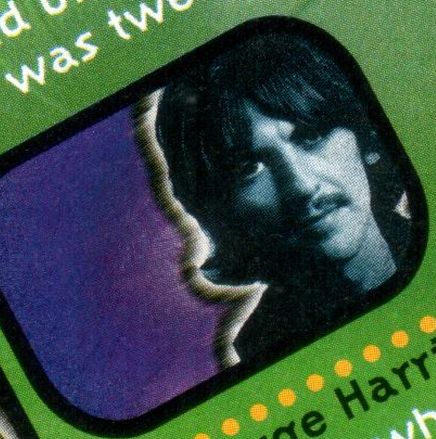

Jewel joined her dad's singing/yodeling act at age six, making up songs on the spot.

Chopin gave his first public performance at age eight, in 1818.

Melissa Etheridge was ten when she wrote her first song, "Don't Let It Fly Away [It's Love]."

Of course, FOX KIDS take over the FOX KIDS Countdown every week, because we only play the songs you request. So what are you waiting for? Go out and take over the music scene, too! Check out the back cover for the Countdown station nearest you!

It's bad news for bad guys ...again!

Stickin' Around™

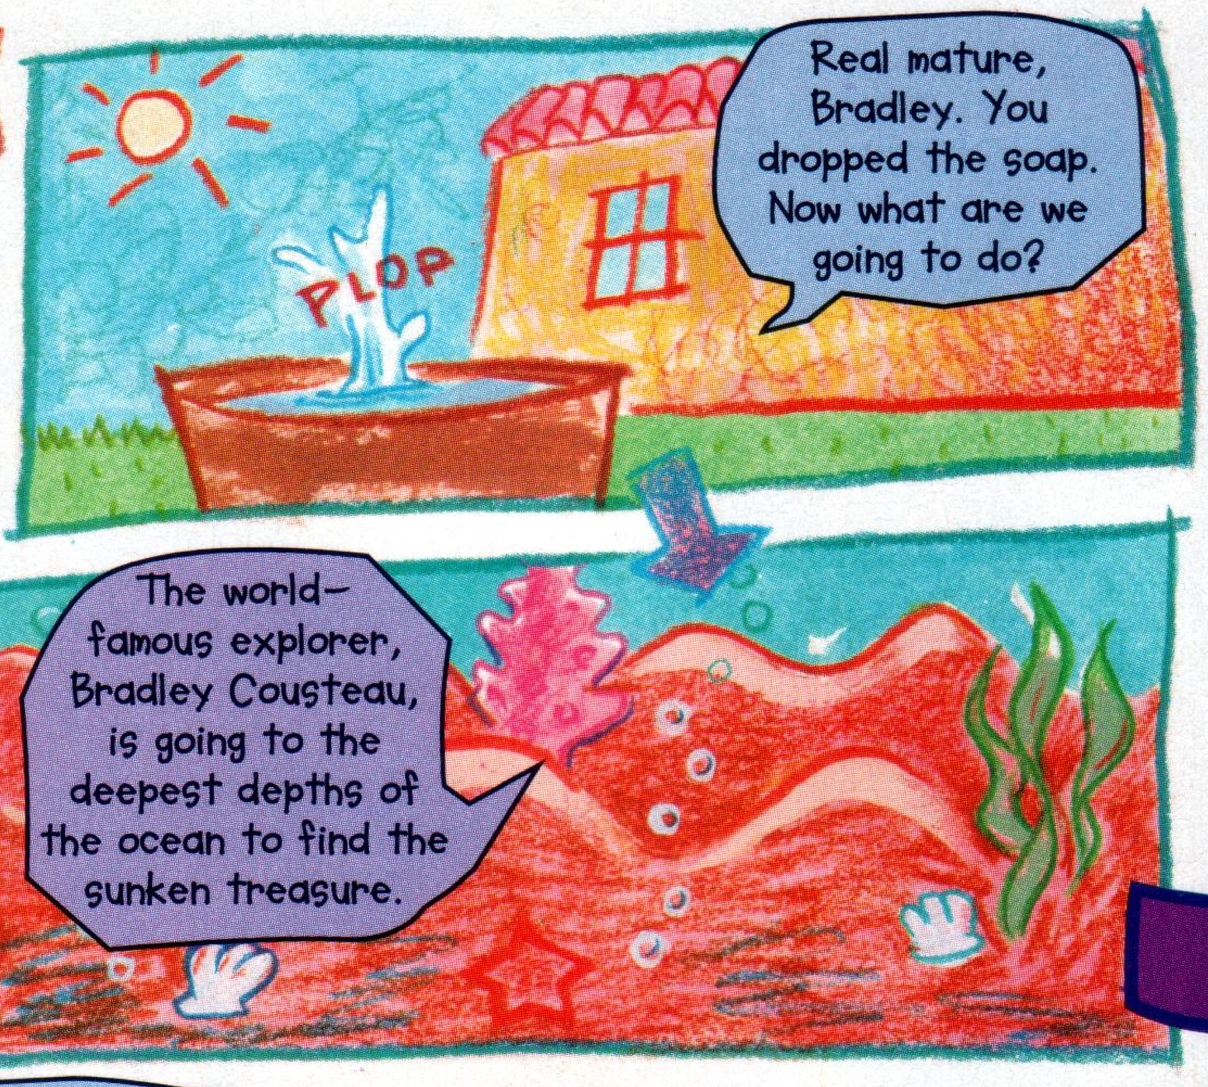

Draw Your Own Cartoon!

This is no comic for couch potatoes. This is a some-assembly-required, do-it-yourself, kid-created kind of comic. The two short stories have been written for you; now it's up to you to draw them! Use the samples below to help you draw your characters. To help you know who's talking, match the color behind the names below with the talk balloons. For example, blue balloon = Stacy.

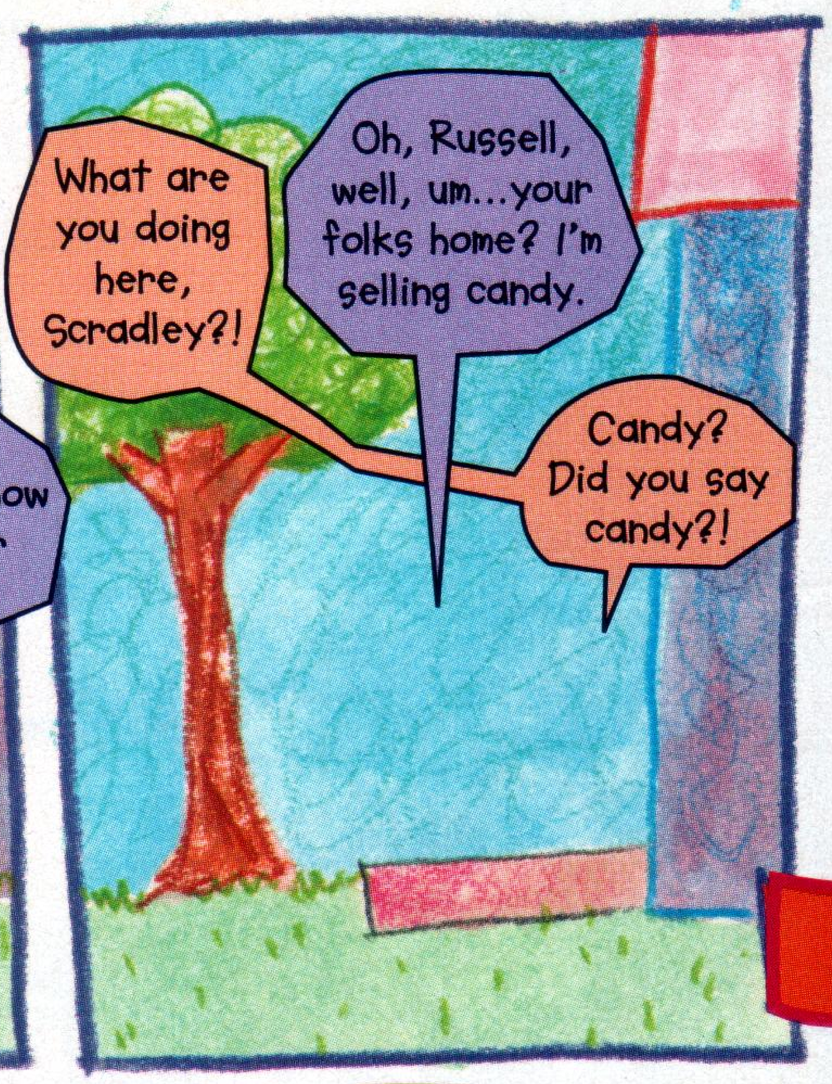

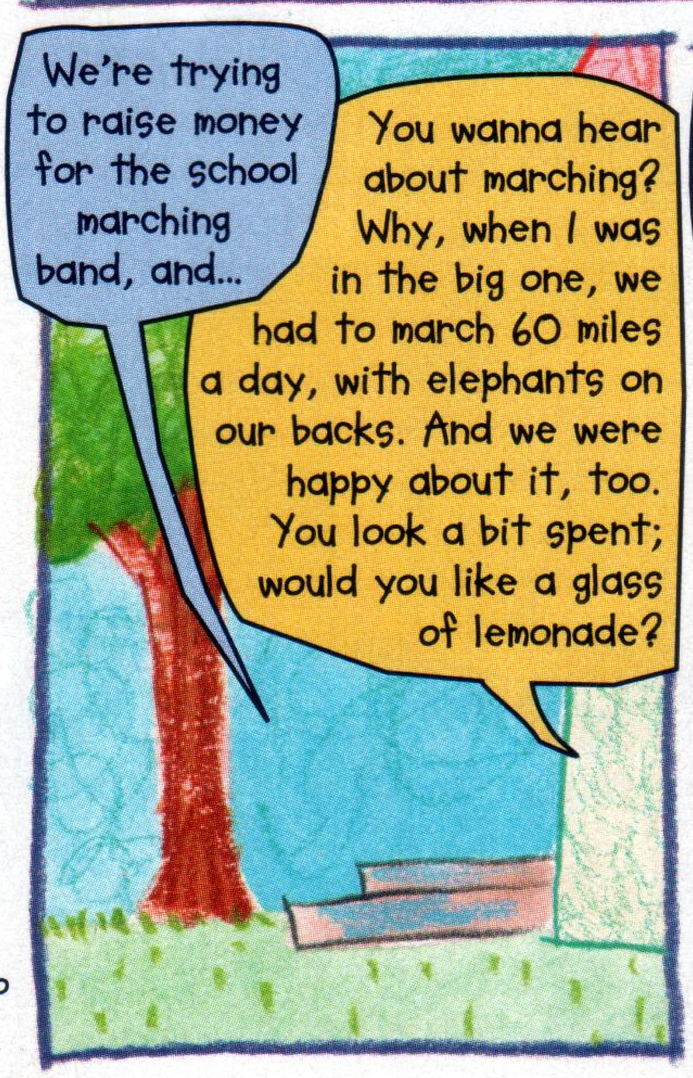

Q: What has a tongue, but no mouth?
A: A shoe.

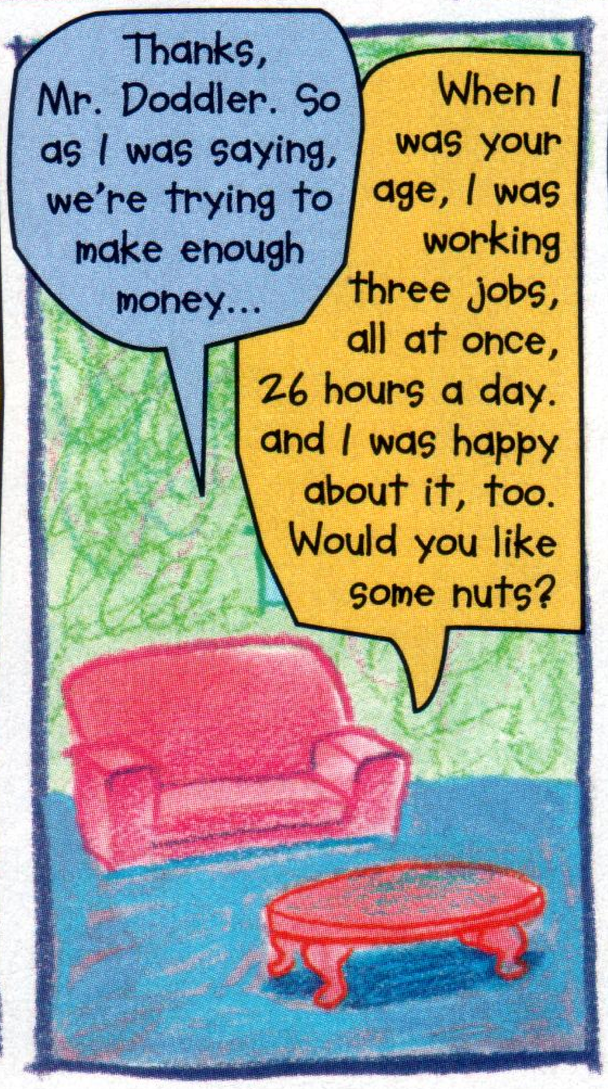

FOX KIDS CLUB

FOX KIDS draws the cartoon for you...all you have to do is watch Stickin' Around, every Saturday morning.

Under the protection of the first female Navy Seal, G.I. Stacy, they encounter a ferocious sea monster.

Aaaarghhh! Not funny, Stace.

G.I. Stacy keeps the monster at bay, while Bradley takes the soap...

...treasure...

...whatever, back to the surface!

You know, at this rate, I'm never going to get any of their pizza.

AAAaaaaaarrrghhh!

Nice going, B-Man! Quick, around that corner, we can ditch them at Mr. Doddler's house!

GRRR!

That was close.

PANT PANT

HUFF HUFF

Now step aside, Bradley. Watch and learn.

Why, hello there, youngsters. What can I do for you?

What was that, dear?

Hello, Mr. Doddler. It's a beautiful day, isn't it?

Mr. Doddler, that was the doorbell.

What? Oh, sure.

Any day now, Stacy.

For your big, fat information, this is all part of my plan, Bradley.

Yes, can I help you, young man?

DO YOU WANNA BUY SHOME CANDY?!

Why, of course, young man. I'll take the whole box.

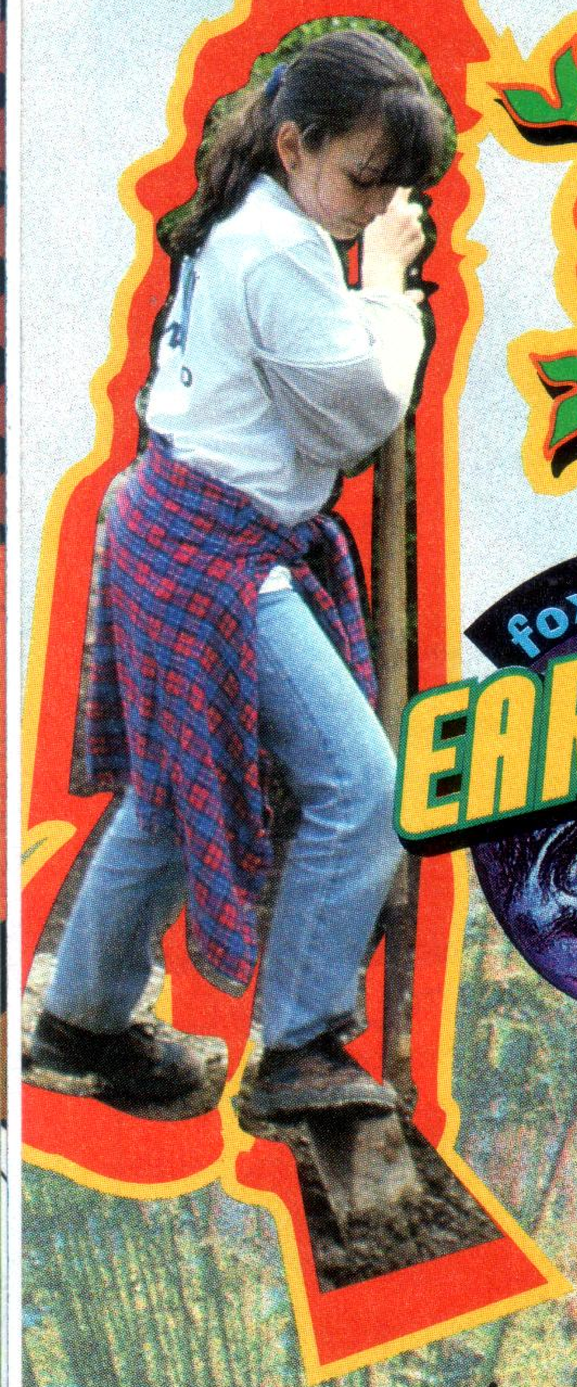

HOOOLLY MACKEREL!!!

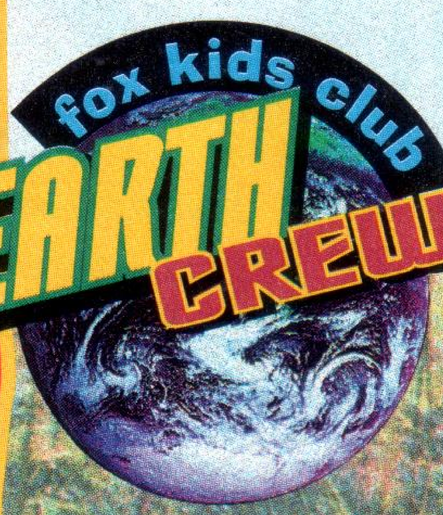

Now, then, where were we? Would you care for a candy bar?

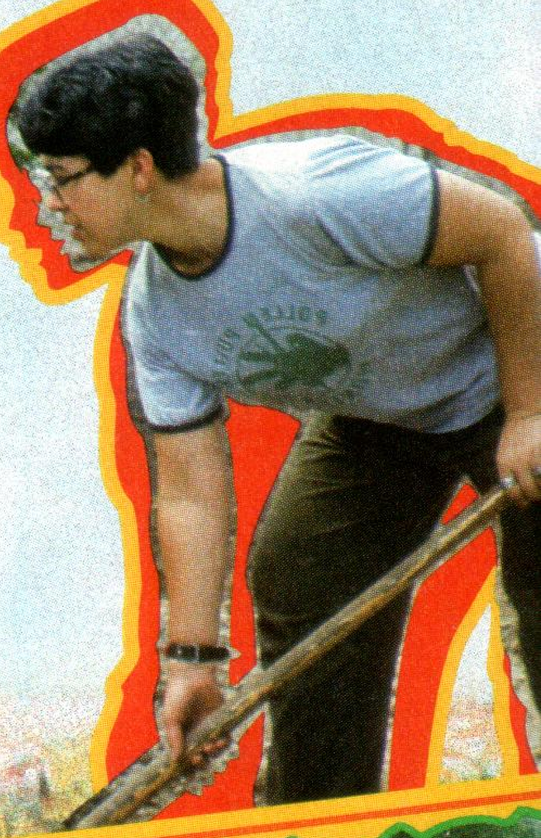

Was that part of your plan, Stace?

Grrrrrr.

GREEN SCHOOLS

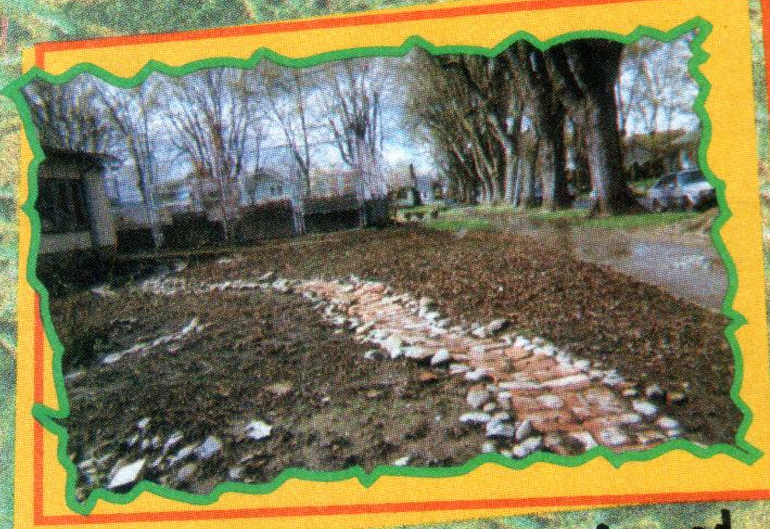

Portland's Environmental Middle School was formed to help teachers, students, and parents take a more active role in the wildlife in our area. We monitored our school for wildlife, but there were no signs of birds, insects, or any other animal life.

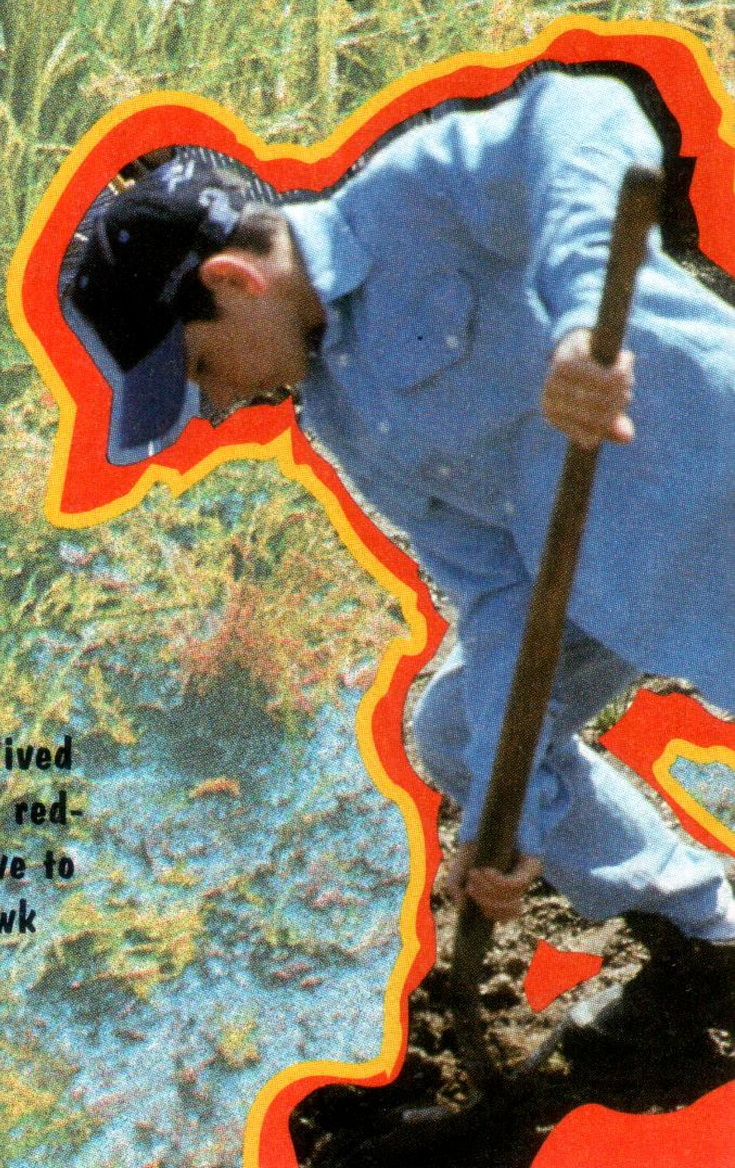

In just two years we transformed the grass at our school into a diverse habitat for many native plants and animals. We created a wetland, grassland, and a wooded area with local native plants.* There are berries and seeds for birds to eat, beautiful flowers for butterflies, and a fun place for us to work and play.

Our school has 180 sixth, seventh, and eighth graders who all worked together to turn over grass, plant native plants, spread mulch, water, and watch our garden grow into a habitat for birds, animals, and bugs. Our gardens became alive with hums, chirps, croaks, and smiles.

*Native plants are species that have always lived in the local bioregion of an area. In our area red-twig dogwood, and Oregon grape are attractive to native animals and birds like the red-tail hawk and don't need special care.

Speak to your parents or teachers about starting a program in your area or school to grow and study local plant and animal life. Maybe you have the green thumb that will bring the insects, birds, and animals to your school!

What do you get when you combine a roomful of FOX KIDS and a sneak-peak at the brand-new animated movie Anastasia? A darned good time! Here's what kids thought about the film before it was even finished.

Jamie, age 8
Favorite Character: Bartok
"I really liked the story. Especially Bartok; he was the funniest little guy I've seen. I liked the idea of Dimitri and Vladimir trying to fool the aunt and then end up doing the right thing. I would definitely see it again with my friends."

Mason, age 8 Favorite Character: Dimitri
"It was cool."

Rachel, age 8 Favorite Character: Bartok
"Exciting and funny."

Monica, age 9 Favorite Character: Pooka
"The funniest part was when Bartok found the girl bat, and then she started kissing him and everything. The scariest part was when Anastasia went out to find the dog and Rasputin was there waiting for her."

Megan, age 8 Favorite Character: Anastasia
"I liked it when Rasputin's mouth kept falling off...then his hand...then his whole head. Bartok was really funny. Go see it and look for the bad guys."

Elizabeth, age 5 Favorite Character: Pooka
"I liked it when Anastasia got back together with her grandma again and when she danced with Dimitri. The dog with the crown was funny. Tell your parents to take you!"

Ashley, age 9 Favorite Character: young Anastasia
"It was wonderful. Very nice. Great music, great acting. It was a little drama, a little romance, a little comedy, and a lot of action!"

Bartok is one funny bat who's afraid of his boss.

The evil sorcerer, Rasputin, literally finds himself falling apart.

TRADING CARDS

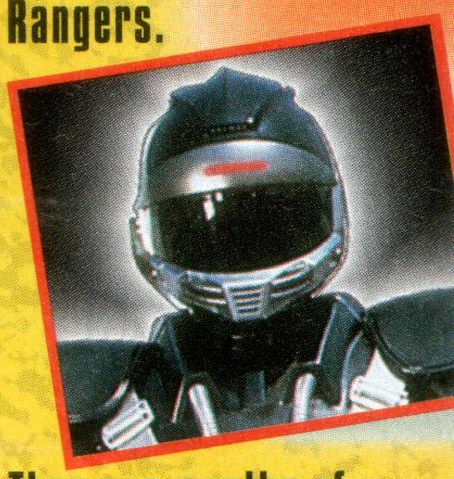

Phantom Ranger here, and based on my analysis of Earth, the most powerful champions here are the Power Rangers.

They are worthy of my help and of the new Rescue Zords I will give them. These cards represent my findings on Earth's greatest heroes. Save them well.

TOTALLY FOX KIDS

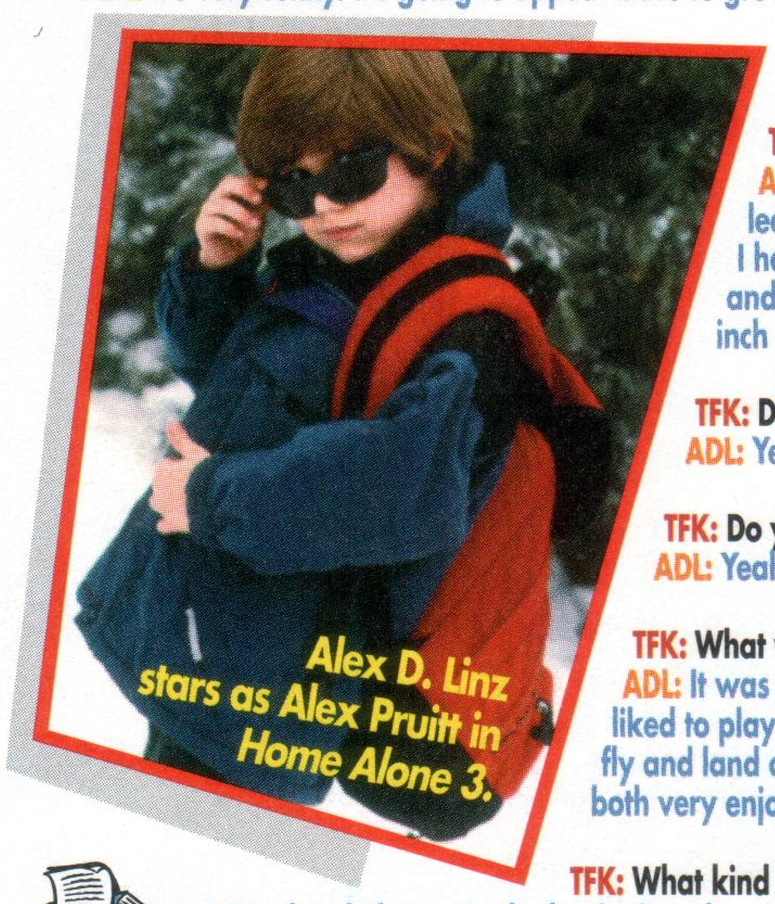

HOME ALONE 3

Interview with Alex D. Linz

It's happening again! One kid home alone versus a few criminals, and a whole lot of comedy (don't these kids ever think to dial 911?). This time, the kid is Alex Pruitt, played by Alex D. Linz, and he's got some help from his pets. We talked to both Alex and Alex to give you a jump on the latest adventure.

TFK: When did you start acting? What got it all going?
ADL: I was around six. The first thing I did was a JC Penny commercial.

TFK: Tell us about the Home Alone 3 movie coming out this winter.
ADL: It's very funny. It's going to appeal more to grown-ups than the last Home Alones, maybe more to kids, too. It's not as slapstick; it's more intellectually stimulating.

Alex D. Linz stars as Alex Pruitt in Home Alone 3.

TFK: Did you get to do cool stunts?
ADL: Yeah, there was one part where I was leaning against the front door, thinking that I had just gotten away from the bad guys, and then a saw came through the door, like an inch away from my shoulder.

TFK: Did they use a real saw?
ADL: Yep, a power saw.

TFK: Do you know as much about computers as Alex?
ADL: Yeah, I know all about the Apple computer I have here.

TFK: What was it like working with your animal costars?
ADL: It was fun. I enjoyed the rat. He was cute, furry, and he liked to play a lot. And I liked the parrot because he would fly and land on my head and my arm and stuff. They were both very enjoyable.

TFK: What kind of part do they play in the movie?
ADL: They help me. In the beginning, the parrot kind of makes fun of me and stuff, but they both help me all through the movie.

TFK: What kind of cartoons do you like to watch?
ADL: I like Freakazoid and Eek! The Cat, the show with Sharky the Dog, and the cavemen.

TFK: If you were home alone, and you had to fight international terrorists, what one thing would you want to have with you?
ADL: I would like to have a squadron of cops.

TFK: Is third grade different from second?
ADL: The puzzles of the week are a little more sophisticated.

TFK: How does school work when you're making a movie?
ADL: I get a set teacher. They get sent the homework, and I do stuff like go to museums, or we do projects, like once we made a volcano!

TFK: What's your advice to kids who want to become actors?
ADL: You should begin by learning how to act. Everybody knows how to act. Volunteer for lots of school plays, or have your relatives or friends help you make home movies and practice like that.

Q: What dog can jump higher than a house?
A: Any. A house can't jump.

DEVELOPING

I like photography because you can look back at the past. You can see things in a picture that you didn't see before. Before I take a picture I always try to organize the setting and different angles, so I get the best possible photo. I do that so when people look at my photos, they say "Wow!"

THE VENICE DREAM TEAM IS A GROUP OF YOUNG PHOTOJOURNALISTS FROM VENICE, CALIFORNIA. WE GO TO DIFFERENT CITIES AND COUNTRIES TAKING PICTURES AND DOCUMENTING THE WAY OF

When I first started, I had a lot to learn from the teachers, like lighting and developing. Then later, it was fun teaching the younger kids how to start with an idea and follow through to exhibiting their art in a show and selling the finished product.

My photography helped me see that I could go somewhere with my life and continue my dreams. Now I'm working with some of the top photographers in the country, and looking at colleges in New York.

VENICE, CALIFORNIA, 1994. TAKEN BY JEREMY ESPINOZA AT AGE 7.

I've been with the Venice Dream Team for 4 1/2 years. For the first couple of years I took pictures of Venice, California, a lot. I have dedicated my life to the Venice Dream Team because I really like to take pictures. On our trip to Europe we visited the cities of Paris, Rome, Venice, Nyon, and Geneva. I liked all the places. Then when we got back we printed up our pictures and, wow, they were fascinating! —Jeremy, age 12

CAUTION: Try not to eat your points during the game!

Q: What do small surfers hope for?
A: Microwaves.

How to Play:

You're going to need a bowl of game "points." Anything can be points as long as you have at least 30 per person (peanuts, M&Ms, or raisins work great). You will also need a coin and one marker per player.

Start the game with 5 points each. Flip the coin to move; heads=1 space, tails=2 spaces. When you land on a "space point" square, take that number of points from the bowl. When you land on "goof points," put that number of points back in the bowl.

When you reach the SuperMegaTransVolter, collect four space points, then head back towards start. Once every player has gone all the way to the SMTV and back, count your points; the player with the most points wins. You don't need an exact flip to land on the SMTV or the finish (start) square.

Makin' Pizza with Piazza!

Tristan Akahoshi-Nugent, winner of the FOX KIDS "In the Zone with Piazza" Sweepstakes, grand-slammed his way to Dodger Stadium and spent a day with Mike Piazza. Yes, a day with Mike Piazza! They ate pizza together at Mike's favorite pizza joint, and then spent the afternoon at Dodger Stadium playing catch before the game! If that weren't enough, they got to star in a segment of In the Zone's "Cyberzone" on FOX!

Winner 8 Times Over!

Andy Green, FOX KIDS Contest King, age 7

You say you're never a big winner? No worries; try being king or queen of runner-ups, like Andy Green. Andy has mastered the technique of winning and has won eight (that's right, 8) FOX KIDS sweepstakes! Talk about lucky, huh? He's won 42 Goosebumps books, a Schwinn Bike Pack, a Construx Deluxe Building Set, a Spider-Man comic book, and lots more...whew!

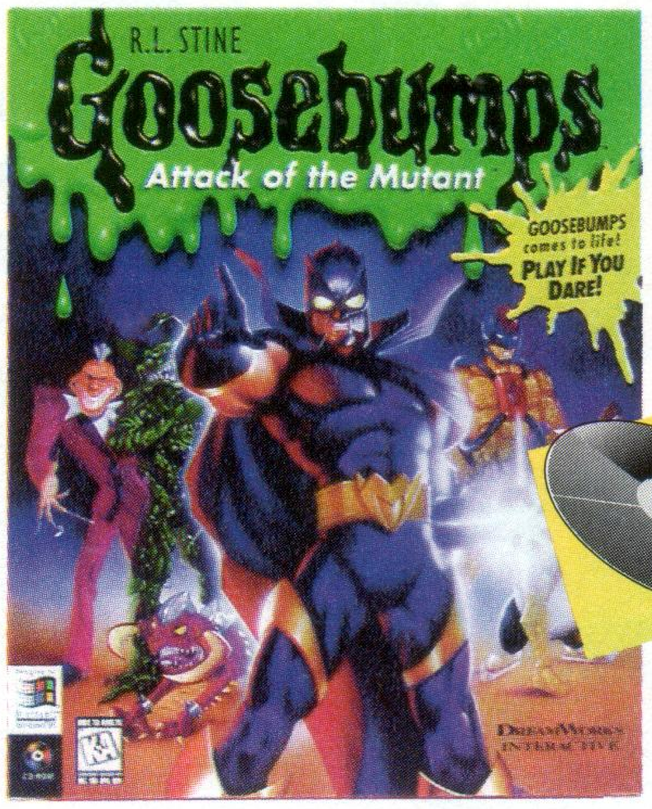

Party in the Patch Sweepstakes!

Did someone say party? FOX KIDS "Party in the Patch" grand-prize winner, Shana Plant, got to invite her friends to her big party where they painted their faces, and hung out with a real Cabbage Patch Kid! Shana and her friends also won a new Cabbage Patch Kid every week for a whole year. Wow!!

Shana Plant, age 10

FOX KIDS gives you the contests you want to win, because you rule! It's that easy! So keep watching and keep entering! Who knows, you may see your picture here next time!

Goosebumps: Attack of the Mutant

CD-ROM by DreamWorks Interactive

This is a pretty cool game. You get to be the hero and go through the Masked Mutant's headquarters, and see all sorts of things. You find the League of Good Guys, and a bunch of villains. My favorite part is that you can find weapons like squirt guns and a guitar to fight the bad guys, but sometimes it's better to be clever than to fight...and sometimes it's just better to run!

Girls Know Best

Beyond Words Publishing

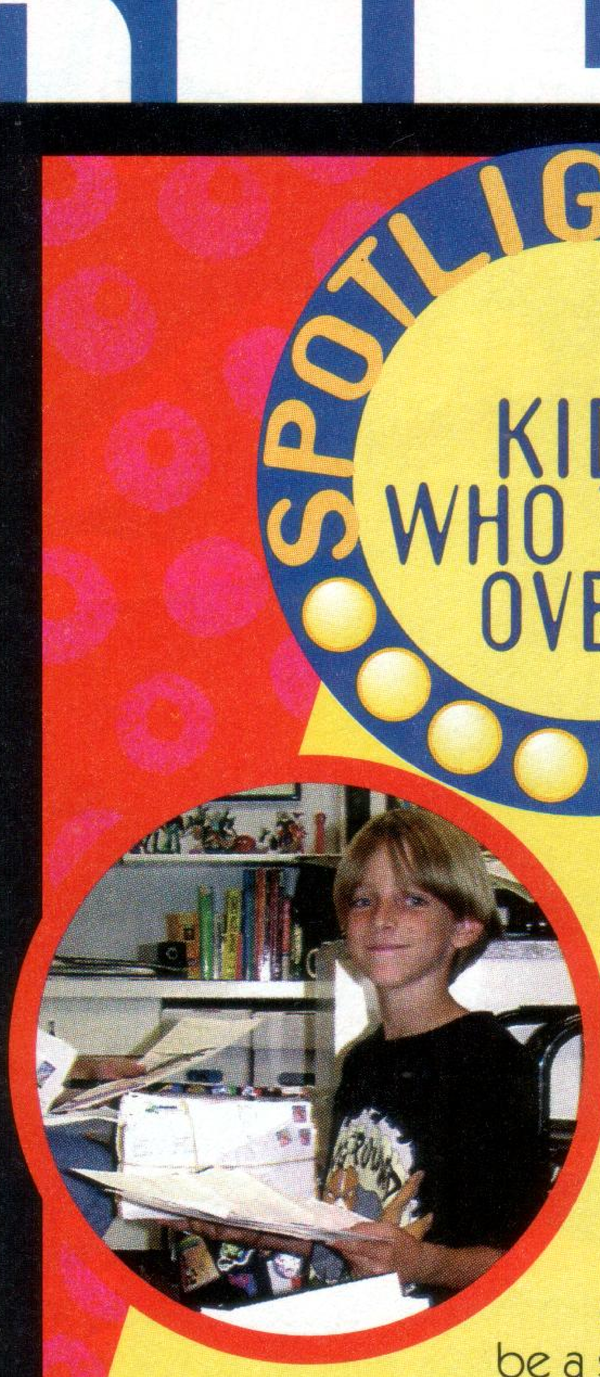

Girls Know Best is a book written by girls for girls. It has advice about getting along with brothers or sisters and about guys. There are recipes for homemade beauty secrets, such as "Zap Your Zits," and fun projects that you can do with your friends. This book can help you out in tough situations or give you ideas to have fun (even ways to pass notes in class). Definitely get the book! It is a lot of fun.

SPOTLIGHT ON KIDS WHO TOOK OVER!

Nick, age 10

Editor—he helped write copy and picked cartoons to be published. He likes skateboarding, surfing, reading, and science projects, and, in fact, wants to be a scientist. His favorite shows are The Tick and Batman, and he likes glazed donuts.

Chantal, age 11

Art Director—she designed and art-directed the "Winners" page (see page 30). She likes drawing, swimming, and playing basketball. Her mother is an art director and her favorite donut is chocolate with sprinkles.

Matthew, age 11

Reporter—he interviewed Shaquille O'Neal (see page 4). Would like to become a neonatologist, but for now enjoys track and field, piano, and of course... basketball. His favorite donut is chocolate with coconut.

STUFF!

By now, of course, you know that this is the FOX KIDS Takeover issue, and you've seen what an issue by kids, for kids, looks like. We'd like to introduce you to a few of the kids responsible for putting it all together.

Jeremy, age 12

Photographer—he took pictures for the magazine. Recently turned his talents to video. Wants to be a director and start a school for young photographers like the Venice Dream Team (see page 28). He likes Life With Louie, and donuts with chocolate icing.

Te'Amir, age 10

Photographer—he took pictures for the magazine. Wants to continue his photography (see pages 4 & 28), and enjoys playing trumpet and soccer. He likes chocolate donuts, and his favorite show is Goosebumps.
